NHPD Investigating Report of Possible Attempted Child Abduction

On Wednesday, October 14 at approximately 6:37 p.m. NHPD officers received a report of a possible attempted child abduction. The victims were in the area of the soccer fields off Crete Avenue which is located between Fleet Avenue and Washington Park Boulevard.

Four female juveniles were in this area when they reported a man and woman attempted to lure them into their van by inviting them to their location which was a short distance away. The juveniles became suspicious and started walking south on Washington Park Boulevard. As they were leaving the man and woman were calling for them to come back. As they were walking down Washington Park Boulevard the two suspects drove past them, opened the door, greeted them but then drove away.

NHPD officers checked the area but did not locate the suspect vehicle. This is an ongoing investigation and anyone with information is urged to contact the Newburgh Heights Police Department at (216) 641-5545.

Description of male suspect: white male, tall, heavysset, reddish blonde hair, late 20s, wearing a black hoodie.

Description of female suspect: white female, shorter, heavysset, late 20s, hair pulled back in pony tail with a dark headband, wearing a Steelers rain jacket, smokes cigarettes.

Vehicle description: red colored van, older, similar to a contractor van with windows around van.
