Update: Possible Attempted Child Abduction

In the matter of the possible attempted child abduction, the Newburgh Heights Police Department has successfully located and identified the parties. The investigation has revealed this to be a misunderstanding between the parties. The suspects were found to be teenage high school students and there was no malicious intent on their part. Rather, the parties were attempting to befriend the others through a mutual friend. All parties were cooperative with police and no further investigation is warranted and the matter is considered closed at this time.
